Jonathan,

At Fleming, we challenge learners to reach their personal potential in a creative, supportive learning environment. Each semester we recognize those who have achieved high academic standing in their course of study. We want to acknowledge the outstanding achievement you have shown during this past semester.

Achieving such success takes dedication, self-discipline, and commitment. Not only are these qualities necessary to achieve academic excellence, but they are also necessary qualities for a successful career. Your efforts at Fleming College will bring further rewards in your career and personal pursuits.

It gives me great pleasure, on behalf of everyone at Fleming College, and especially the faculty in the School of Business and Information Technology to congratulate you on your exceptional academic performance during the Winter (January - April) 2023 Semester.

Yours sincerely,
